"This simply begs the real question at issue. Can a church or society thus wash its hands of all responsibility touching all gifts which may come to its treasury without violating funda-mental principles of ethics?

mental principles of emics?

"It is charged by many that Mr. Rookefeller has acquired a large proportion of his wealth by illegitimate methods, and that to such ill-gotten gaths he has no moral right (legal rights do not enter into the discussion). Multituder believe that undisputed facts raise a reasonable doubt, to say the least, whether Mr. Rockefeller has a moral right to the money which he gives away.

"It follows, therefore, that the board has no right to scoopt his gift until that reasonable doubt is removed.
"I will not say that the Prudential committee has a right to accept this principle. It has no right to reject it. The acceptance of ethical principles is not optional.

400 DEAD OR HURT IN MADRID CRASH

MADRID, April 8.-Four hundred persons were killed or injured to day by the collapse of a new water reservoir in course of construction. Fifty bodies have already been recovered.

The Prince of the Asturias, the War Minister, the Governor of Madrid and a representative of the King have gone to the spot to super intend the work of rescue.

Troops sent to the scene are engaged in helping the sufferers and covering the bodies of the dead.

The catastrophe caused a profound sensation throughout the city. All work was suspended and the people flocked to the scene.

A workman who was injured says the collapse was so sudden and complete that it was impossible to tell what happened. The men at work on the reservoir, however, anticipated trouble, as a fortnight ago three arches collapsed and cracks developed in four others.

King Alfonso was shooting at Carabanche when he heard of the disaster and immediately repaired to the scene. His arrival was the signal for ovations from the crowds. The King was deeply moved and insisted upon personally supervising the relief measures.

Working parties are gradually removing the debris and continue to read a strict inquiry.
